

Declarations of interest – AIP guideline

| GDG Member | Interest Declared | Date Declared | Type of Interest | Decisions Taken |
|---------------------------------|---|----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Peter Brewer | Member of East Midlands Regional Funding Committee – Research for Patient Benefit Programme | 13/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| | Member of Patient/Public Reference Group for Nurse Case Management Study | 13/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| Brian Cuthbertson | Principle Investigator (PI) for a Scottish Intensive Care Society project studying the long term outcome from severe sepsis. This project has received a non-commissioned unlimited research grant from Eli Lilly (2006-2008). As the SICS is unable to hold such grants the grant has come through the University of Aberdeen in my name as PI (Eli Lilly) | 30/10/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| Jane Eddleston (Clinical Lead) | Trust tech, an NHS funded organisation involved in the development and promotion of products for the NHS has been approached by an Australian firm - PATIENT TRACK to undertake an evaluation of their automated patient recording in the Trust. The study is likely to start in late Spring 2007. I will have no personal involvement in the study but will have managerial knowledge. | 02/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| Peter Gibb | Patient representative member of the Critical Care Patient Liaison Committee (CritPal) since Jan 2006 | 08/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| David Harrison (Expert Advisor) | ICNARC has a contract to provide epidemiological analyses on ICU admissions with sepsis | 001/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| John Hindle | Research grant paid to North West Wales NHS Trust drug trials account for work on premipercedo in Parkinson's disease (Boehringer Ingelheim) | 28/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| Patrick Nee | Received an honorarium from Eli Lilly for a lecture at the Karolinska Institute on sepsis resuscitation bundles in Sept 2006 | 04/12/06 | Personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| Gary Smith (Expert Advisor) | Designed course (ALERT) which has run nationally and internationally since the year 2000 and has been available for purchase from employer, Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust. | 24/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |

| | | | | |
|--|--|----------|--|--|
| | Received no personal payment or royalty payments in relation copyright/intellectual property rights. | | | |
| | Lead a team of researchers who have contributed to the development of an electronic vital signs data gathering system (VitalPAC). Combined development between Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust, and the company developing the system, The Learning Clinic. Received no personal payment or royalty payments in relation copyright/intellectual property rights. | 24/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| | Wife is a creditor of The Learning Clinic | 24/11/06 | Personal family interest, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| | Leading the international research and development into a wireless, non-invasive respiratory rate monitor. Sponsoring company, Laerdal Medical, is providing the devices and material costs of installing the prototype devices. Funding for the research team is provided by way of current NHS and University contracts. | 24/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |
| | Leading UK research into a wireless ECG dysrhythmia alarm. Sponsoring company, Datascope, is providing the devices and material costs of installing the prototype devices. Funding for the research team is provided by way of current NHS and University contracts. | 24/11/06 | Non-personal pecuniary, non-specific | Declared and participated in discussions on all topics |