Carl Roobottom	Consultant Radiologist, Derriford	First GC meeting 20/01/16:

	Hospital, Plymouth	Involved in providing lectures on a CT accreditation course run by GE for nearly 10 years which is based in the Peninsula Radiology Academy in Plymouth. Takes annual leave to deliver the course and is paid a lecture fee (via a separate company called ATC). The course is non-vendor specific and was designed to ensure high standards of CT reporting in the UK. Declared this interest when involved in the CG95 and DG3 NICE guidance and it was not felt to be an issue as recommendations on CT are non-vendor-specific. No pending publications on acute chest pain or associations with any manufacturers of Tn assays.	Non-specific personal financial	Declared and participated

Neil Swanson	Consultant Cardiologist, James Cook University Hospital, Middlesbrough	First GC meeting 20/01/16: Occasionally responded to market research surveys that relate to personal opinions on the management of some acute chest pain conditions. In a year, this is estimated to be under £100. No payments/sponsorships received from any industry directly involved in the management of any cardiac conditions. Money is paid to Neil's department from industry for the employment of clinical fellows, but he is not involved in that and does not know how much money is paid. He is not involved in the selection of such trainees. Money is paid to Neil's research department for research trials from a variety of companies which have a commercial interest in the treatments for acute chest pain. None of this money is paid to /spent by Neil. He is site principal investigator for a clinical trial (Re dual) sponsored by the makers of dabigatran. This trial recruits patients with acute chest pain (for example	Non-specific personal financial Non-specific non-personal financial Specific non-personal financial	Declared and participated Declared and participated Declared and participated
