

27th February 2001From: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
Sent: 25 September 2007 11:55
To: Natalie Bemrose
Subject: RE: Health Technology Appraisal : Drugs for the treatment of pulmonary arterial hypertension - RCN response

Importance: High

Health Technology Appraisal

Drugs for the treatment of pulmonary arterial hypertension

Dear Natalie

Nurses working in the cardiology area of health have reviewed the Assessment Report for the health technology appraisal of the drugs for the treatment of pulmonary arterial hypertension. The report is considered comprehensive and there are no further comments to be submitted on behalf of the Royal College of Nursing at this stage of the appraisal.

Thank you for the opportunity to review the document.

Please acknowledge receipt.

Regards

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

20 Cavendish Square
London
W1G 0RN

Tel: [REDACTED]

Fax: [REDACTED]

The Professional Nursing Department works with RCN members and other stakeholders to develop excellence in nursing practice, influence policy and promote the science and art of nursing.

-----
<http://www.rcn.org.uk>

This email is confidential and intended solely for the use of the individual to whom it is addressed. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Royal College of Nursing or any of its affiliates.

If you are not the intended recipient be advised that you have received this email in error and that any use, dissemination, forwarding, printing or copying of this email is strictly prohibited. If you have received this email in error please return it to the sender immediately. The contents of this message may be legally privileged.

Royal College of Nursing of the United Kingdom
20 Cavendish Square
London W1G 0RN
Registered Charity Number: 276435
Tel: +44 (0) 845 456 3996
Fax: +44 (0) 20 7647 3436

---

Delivered via MessageLabs

---