Equality impact assessment

Acute kidney injury: prevention, detection and management (update)

The impact on equality has been assessed during guidance development according to the principles of the NICE equality policy.

4.0 Final guideline (to be completed by the Developer before GE consideration of final guideline)

4.1 Have any additional potential equality issues been raised during the consultation, and, if so, how has the Committee addressed them?

No additional equalities issues were identified during consultation.

4.2 If the recommendations have changed after consultation, are there any recommendations that make it more difficult in practice for a specific group to access services compared with other groups? If so, what are the barriers to, or difficulties with, access for the specific group?

Recommendations have undergone minor wording changes following consultation. These changes do not have an adverse impact any groups.

1.0.7 DOC EIA

4.3 If the recommendations have changed after consultation, is there potential for the recommendations to have an adverse impact on people with disabilities because of something that is a consequence of the disability?

Recommendations have undergone minor wording changes following consultation. These changes do not have an adverse impact on people with disabilities.

4.4 If the recommendations have changed after consultation, are there any recommendations or explanations that the Committee could make to remove or alleviate barriers to, or difficulties with, access to services identified in questions 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3, or otherwise fulfil NICE's obligations to advance equality?

Recommendations have undergone minor wording changes following consultation. These changes do not have an adverse impact any groups.

4.5 Have the Committee's considerations of equality issues been described in the final guideline, and, if so, where?

Yes – in the 'benefits and harms' and "other factors the committee took into account" sections of the committee's discussion of the evidence.
