1. Welcome and objectives for the meeting

Adam Moreton, was welcomed as an observer. Apologies were received from Simon Gilbody, Jeremy Clarke and Sinead Dervin.

The minutes of the previous guideline committee meeting were reviewed and corrected.

No service user or carer concerns were raised.

2. Declarations of interest

The following interests were declared:

EW was involved in 2 MCT trials which were presented to the GC.

Table 1 has been updated for your reference.

3. Minutes of last meeting

The minutes from the last meeting were reviewed and confirmed as accurate.

4. Presentations

CCQI have an Accreditation Programme for Psychological Therapies Services, network system but have explained that this has been difficult to map and there is a list of NHS Psychological Therapies Services which was developed for the NAPT audit. The GC confirmed they would like to see both.

IS presented a set of terms and definition for service delivery. The GC were asked to assess the proposed categorisation and definitions, so that the evidence review captured the intervention.

IS presented the clinical evidence review on psychological and pharmacological interventions for relapse prevention.

IM presented the findings of the systematic literature review looking at the cost-effectiveness of interventions aiming at relapse prevention in depression.

IM updated the GC on the proposed NMA approach and issues ahead.

IM presented the methods for estimating the QALYs for use in economic evaluation based on the availability of utility data for adults with depression.

The GC were presented with a rough draft writing plan for the full guideline. The GC were asked to review and feedback on the structure and to consider what sections they would be willing to contribute to at the next GC meeting. The technical team will write the evidence sections of the full guideline but the GC members will be asked to draft introductions and put in any key contextual issues.

7. Other issues
