		health and wellbeing – a whole school or college approach. This is a refresh of a previous document published in 2015	Rationale: Interest is organisational
The Chair advised that the interests previously declared did not prevent the attendees from fully participating in the meeting.
3. Minutes from the previous meeting
The minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as an accurate record, with one minor amendment required.
4. Expert testimony: Implementing trauma-aware education
The Chair welcomed Louise Bombèr from TouchBase, who provided testimony on implementing trauma-aware education in schools. The Committee then had the opportunity to ask questions.
5. Expert testimony: Facilitating and supporting partnership between mental health and education
The Chair welcomed Gemma Niebieszczanski and Melissa Cortina from the Anna Freud Centre, who provided testimony on facilitating and supporting partnership between mental health and education. The Committee then had the opportunity to ask questions.
6. Implications of expert testimony on draft recommendations
The Chair introduced Chris Carmona who discussed with the committee the impact of the expert testimony presented on the draft recommendations.
7. Discussion of final focus group findings
This item was not required as the committee had reviewed the final report summarising engagement with children and young people in development of the guideline, received from University of Manchester colleagues and did not have any follow up queries.
8. Implications of CYP engagement focus group findings on draft recommendations

This item was not required, as above.

9. Whole-school approach

- Re-run search results
- Review of draft recommendations
- Research recommendations

The Chair welcomed Giacomo De Guisa who presented the committee with newly identified evidence on Whole-school approaches from the re-run searches. The committee discussed the impact of this evidence on the draft recommendations and updated these accordingly.

The committee were then presented with evidence identified in the re-run searches for Identifying children and young people at risk of poor SEMW, originally scheduled for PHAC 18. The committee discussed the newly identified evidence and begun to review impact on the draft recommendations before agreeing to conclude this discussion at PHAC 18.

10. Summary of the day and next steps

The Chair summarised the discussion from the day, thanked the Committee and confirmed that meeting 18 will commence at 10am the following day, as scheduled.
