

My apologies for not responding to XXXX's letter by the 5th October deadline.

I can confirm that Wyeth are not aware of any evidence which would suggest that a review of the above mentioned guidance would be beneficial.

Wyeth therefore support the decision that the review of the original guidance be deferred until April 2010.

Best Regards,