

Thank you for your message regarding the review of the guidance for frequency of application of topical corticosteroids in eczema.

Typharm Limited have no further comments to make and confirm that we have no new research to suggest changes to the current guidance.

Yours sincerely